There were 58 competitors in the Individual Championship which was won by D C S Goodman with 7½/9, G H Bennett came equal second with J E Littlewood on 7 and M W Wills finished 8th with B Cafferty and M L Fuller scoring 6/9.

BOOK LIST: Grandmasters of Chess. Harold C Schonberg - Fontana Paperbacks pp 277 95p.

Mr Schonberg, who in 1971 collected a Pulitzer Prize for Distinguished Criticism in music wrote this book in 1974 and a paperback edition by Fontana appeared in the bookshops this month.

The author gives a series of biographies of the great players of the game from Philidor to Fischer, crammed in many cases with minor personal details, but also furnished with outstanding examples of brilliant games. All this with a careful (and colourful) background of the social customs of each age and the position and status which a chess master might hope to achieve.

Altogether a very interesting book whose literary style adds to its value as a record of human achievement across the chessboard over the centuries.
